New 2023 Product Catalog Available for Digital Download

(Chicago, IL): Designs of Distinction's new 2023 Product Catalog is available to view and download today! Printed copies expected to be available mid-summer 2023.

Over the last several years, our product development team has been researching the latest trends in materials for Kitchen, Bath & Home. We've found our customers want options beyond the basic and usual, and have added materials like leather, resin, and rattan to round out our Cut-to-Size Materials program and offer you more options to design your next project. Our Cut-to-Size materials line has more than quadrupled since Decorative Grilles were added in 2019.

We've also expanded our line of metallic accents, introducing 2 new colors in 2023, as well as new styles and sizes of metal trim, ferrules, sleeves, and more. Our matching metallic accents offer a unique way to add mixed materials, color, and dimension to otherwise standard cabinetry and furniture.

We hope you are inspired by our materials, finishes, and components for Kitchen, Bath & Home. Keeping our finger on the pulse of trends in the industry and adapting our product offering is what we do best. Since we continually add new products, finishes, and materials to keep up with the latest trends, please be sure to check our website regularly and subscribe to our newsletter to ensure you have the most up-to-date news from Designs of Distinction.
